Case No. 4:20-cv-00278

MOTION FOR ADDITIONAL PAGES

Plaintiff Enterprise Bank and Trust (“Enterprise Bank”), request for approval of additional pages for its Response in Opposition to Defendant Jack C. May’s (“May”) Motion to Dismiss or Transfer, states as follows:

1. Enterprise Bank respectfully asks the Court for an Order allowing it to exceed the page limit stated in Local Rule 4.01(d) by 10 additional pages (for a total page limit not to exceed 25 pages) in its Response in Opposition to Defendant’s Motion to Dismiss.
2. The additional pages are necessary because Enterprise Bank’s Opposition is effectively an opposition to two motions in that it includes arguments against dismissal and transfer.
3. Further, the legal background of this case includes a myriad of filings across multiple jurisdictions; the additional page length ensures the Court is adequately advised of this factual background.
4. Enterprise Bank’s request is made in good faith, will not prejudice either party, will not prolong this matter before the Court and is not made for any improper purpose.

5. Enterprise Bank conferred with Defendant's counsel regarding this request; Defendant's counsel does not object to this requested extension.

6. WHREFORE, Enterprise Bank respectfully requests the Court permit it to file Suggestions in Opposition to Defendant's Motion to Dismiss that exceeds the page limit set by Local Rule 4.01(d) by 10 pages.

Dated: August 27, 2020.

Respectfully Submitted,
